Re: U.S. v. Dennis, 20 Cr. 623 (LGS)-Unexpected Reassignment Of Judge Schofield -Six Weeks Before Trial (September 28, 2022)

Your Honor,

I am writing seeking information about the reassignment of Judge Schofield away from this matter on Friday (August 12, 2022) six weeks from the trial.

Judge Schofield has been involved in the matter since November of 2021 and is, of course, very familiar with the facts of the case, with trial only 6 weeks away. In preparation for trial Judge Schofield has already issued subpoenas for witness testimony, including one to Rosemary Alito. Will all that cease now ?

The Department of Justice which has been working on this matter since October of 2020 indicated on April 4th that it was prepared for trial in July of 2022. This would make sense since the case is related to “ e-mail communications “ between former partners in their 50s, 60s and 70s , where some are claiming they were “ harmed “...maybe paper cuts. This case is already a significant draw on the resources of the Department of Justice, which are already challenged. This actually should be in civil court, where it was before my former partners brought their complaints to the DOJ

The reassignment of Judge Schofield severely interferes with my ability to receive a fair and “speedy” trial after two (2) years on September 28, 2022 for several reasons:
- the new judge will have to learn all the facts Judge Schofield has learned over 9 months in six weeks It simply physically cannot be done.

-As I am representing myself Pro-Se, I am now burdened with having to learn the rules of a new judge six weeks before trial..this is clearly another significant advantage for the Department of Justice since I am sure they are familiar with the new judge’s rules.

I am hoping and praying that theses additional burden placed on me six weeks before trial can be reversed and Judge Schofield can be reassigned to, the case, since I am the one facing the greatest liability ...incarceration.

There are other facts I would like to share with the Court if the Court is available for a call

Finally is there a process for appealing this reassignment of Judge Schofield as the decision only occurred on Friday, one day after Judge Schofield began issuing subpoenas so Judge Schofield remains completely up to speed.

Respectfully submitted,

Willie Dennis
